

RUSSELL COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS Identifies and Serves Children with Disabilities!

Children with disabilities, ages 2 to 21, inclusive, have a right to a free and appropriate public education. Special education programs and services are available. Referring students early permits identification and allows for early intervention. If your child or someone you know has a child with a disability, please refer the child for services through the office of the school the child attends. If the child is a preschooler or an out-of-school child, call the school board office at (276) 889-6500.
